

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Mem.—This Account is prepared from the Abstract, No. 4, of the Annual Finance Accounts.

For the purpose of continuing the statement upon the same principle throughout, it has been necessary to exclude the Receipts from and Payments to the Trustees of Naval and Military Pensions in the Years previous to 1829. The Annuity paid to the Bank of England in those Years, under the Act 4 Geo. 4, c. 22, is included under the head of "Charge of the Debt," according to the system pursued in the Finance Accounts for the subsequent years. The Annuities charged on the Sinking Fund are also added to the Charge of the Debt.

The Advances and Repayments on account of Public Works are excluded from this Account for the Years previous to 1828, an alteration having taken place from that period in the mode of stating the Accounts, pursuant to the recommendation of the Finance Committee, by which those Advances and Repayments no longer appear in the Abstract, No. 4.

The Figures in the first Seven Years of the period will not correspond with the printed Accounts to the extent of these alterations.

The Expenditure for Miscellaneous Services in the Years 1847 and 1848, includes the Sum of £.1,525,000 in 1847, and £.276,377 in 1848, for Relief of Distress in Ireland; and in the Year 1849 is included £.113,542 for Relief of Destitute Emigrants from that country.

The Amount expended under the Heads of Army, &c., for the Year 1848, includes the Sum of £.1,100,000 for the Expenses of the Kaffir War.

Surveying Charges - - - - -	1,822	9	5

Further Surveying Charges beyond those included in the foregoing Return have been incurred by the Board of Woods, the particulars whereof have not yet been sent in to the Office.

And with regard to the Law Expenses, it is to be observed, that some of the costs included in the Return do not relate exclusively to the Land and Works at Birkenhead, but embrace likewise the rights of the Crown in Tranmere, Seacombe, Wallasey, and the Cheshire Shores of the Mersey generally, and they cannot be separated. The Law Bills of 1849 and 1850 are included in the Return, but have not yet been taxed.

BOARD OF INLAND REVENUE.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons,
dated 7 March 1851 ;—for,

COPY “ of the TREASURY MINUTE assigning an Additional Allowance of £. 500 per Annum to the CHAIRMAN of the BOARD of INLAND REVENUE.”

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 11 March 1851.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated the 7th February 1851.

My Lords have before them the services of Mr. John Wood, the Chairman of the Board of Inland Revenue.

Mr. Wood was appointed in 1833 to be Chairman of the Consolidated Board of Stamps and Taxes, with a salary of 1,600*l.* per annum.

In 1838, he was appointed Chairman of the Board of Excise, with a salary of 2,000*l.* per annum ; and in 1848, on the consolidation of the Board of Excise and of the Board of Stamps and Taxes into one department, he was appointed Chairman of the united department—the Board of Inland Revenue.

These two consolidations have been practically carried into effect chiefly by the exertions of Mr. John Wood, who has conducted, not only the ordinary duties of the offices which he has filled with the greatest advantage to the public service, but has executed the more difficult task of making the detailed arrangements of the changes above adverted to, by which the ultimate saving to the public will be about a quarter of a million per annum.

It is unnecessary for my Lords to do more than advert to these circumstances, in order to point out the character of Mr. J. Wood's services. And it must be equally obvious, that the duties of the chairmanship of the combined departments must add very considerably both to the labour and the responsibility to which that gentleman has hitherto been subjected.

My Lords did not make any change in the salary of the Chairman of the Consolidated Board of Inland Revenue at the time of the change, and they are of opinion that, on future appointments, the present salary may be considered a fair remuneration ; but they think it only due to Mr. John Wood, who received the salary of 2,000 l. for the less onerous duties of Chairman of the Board of Excise, and through whose means and unwearied exertions so large a saving to the public has been obtained, to mark the sense which they entertain of his services, by assigning to him, so long as he shall hold the office of Chairman of the Board of Inland Revenue, a salary of 2,500 l. per annum, to commence from the beginning of the present quarter.

Let the necessary directions be given accordingly ; and let a copy of this Minute be transmitted to Mr. Wood for his information.

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL HISTORY.

Mineralogical Branch.

Great progress has been made during last year in the arrangement of the contents of Room VI. Its wall cases have been entirely filled with the gigantic Osseous Remains of Edentata and Pachydermata, of which latter those of the Proboscideous Family, as most numerous, have been partly arranged on supplementary shelves above the wall cases on the South side; while on the North side the Bones of the Edentata are displayed in immediate proximity to the Skeleton of the Megatherium. Preparation is making for placing the cast of the gigantic Himalayan Tortoise (Colossochelys Atlas) on the Upper landing place of the North East staircase.

Considerable additions have been made to the exhibited portion of other classes of Secondary Fossils. The new table cases in Room VI. have afforded the means of displaying some groups, such as the Palæozoic Brachiopoda, the Corals, Sponges, &c., which have hitherto been less perfectly represented in the table cases of the adjoining rooms.

The extensive Collections of Fossils acquired within the last two or three years, containing thousands of specimens, have required much time for their arrangement, to render them available for the purposes of reference and examination. This work has proceeded so far, that but little remains to complete it. The same may be said of the rich Collection of Fossil Fishes, to which many additions have been made during the past year. The ticketing of the Specimens has been diligently proceeded with. The arrangement of the Minerals has undergone no changes, except such as were called for by the too crowded state of some of the table cases; for instance, those containing the Meteorites, in Room I. Most of the mineral Specimens are now illustrated by descriptive labels, and nothing remains but to add to all of them their localities, which work will be completed in the course of the current year. Though the Oryctognostic Collection has not increased in the same proportion as the other collections of this branch of the department, yet many of the additions to it, both by purchase and donation, are not undeserving of especial mention.

Among the Donations may be particularized: a superb specimen of the rose-coloured variety of Apophyllite, from Samson's Mine, Andreasberg, Hartz, presented by the late Marquis of Northampton; some splendid groups of crystallized Thallite, from Traversella, in Piedmont, presented by W. G. Lettsom, Esq.; a fine specimen of red Octohedral fluor Spar from Chamouni, Savoy, the donation of John Ruskin, Esq.; a small suite of Minerals from Greenland, given by J. Taylor, Esq.; while many scarce and valuable mineral substances have been obtained, by purchase, of Messrs. Sowerby, Krantz, Tennant, and also through Professors Shepard and de Klipstein, among which may be particularized several of the rarest Meteorites, such as those from Charvallas, India, from Owyhee, from Cabarra in North Carolina, &c.; various new Minerals, chiefly from the United States of America; a large globular mass of filiform and dendritic native Silver, from Mexico; a suite of Turquoises in the matrix, discovered, 1849, in Arabia, by Major Macdonald.

Several objects relative to Fossil Botany, obtained by purchase, have been deposited in Room I.

As a valuable addition to the Collection of Fossil Fishes, may be mentioned a suite of Specimens (some of them the identical ones described and figured in Agassiz's great work), embedded in the yellow sandstone of Dura Den, and another from the coal-formation of Gilmerton, Scotland; together with several desiderata from Monte Bolca, &c.

Other lately-made acquisitions deserving of particular notice, are, The very extensive Collection formed by the late Frederick Dixon, Esq., rich in Fossils from the older tertiary formations of the Sussex coast, and in Specimens from the chalk. To Mr. Searles Wood the Museum is indebted for an extensive series of Remains, chiefly of Crocodiles and other Reptiles, from the eocene formation at Hordel in Hampshire. A Collection of Mammalian Remains, including fine Tusks, &c. of the Mammoth, collected in Kotzebue Sound, has been presented by Capt. Kellett and Lieut. Wood. A series of Hippurites and Sphærolites from the lower chalk of Toulon, presented by S. P. Pratt, Esq.; together with Collections from the upper Green Sand near Warminster, from the Oxford Clay near Chippenham, from the upper Chalk at Norwich, and from the Oolite and Lias formations of Dorsetshire.

The entries into the Register amount to upwards of Four thousand.

A complete Catalogue of the Books hitherto obtained by purchase, and as donations, for the Departmental Library, has been drawn up in the course of last year.

LAND TAX (BRADLEY HAVERSTOE).

RETURN to an Address of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 30 June 1851 ;—for,

“COPIES of all LETTERS that have passed between Mr. Keogh, the Secretary to the Board of Inland Revenue, or any other Person, by direction of that Board, and any Commissioner of Land Tax, or Clerk to Commissioners of Land Tax, relative to the JUDGMENT of the COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH in January last, in the Case of The Queen v. The Commissioners of Land Tax for the Division of Bradley Haverstoe.”

Inland Revenue, Somerset House, }
10 July 1851.

Thomas Keogh.

The Clerk to Commissioners of Land Tax to the Secretary of Inland Revenue.

Sir,

Taunton, 12 February 1851.

Re Bradley Haverstoe Commissioners.

A CASE reported in the “Law Times” this week, XVI. L. T. 411, has attracted my attention, and induces me to inquire whether the Board has any instructions to give to Commissioners of Land-tax and their clerks respecting it.

It appears to me, that the easiest way to meet the difficulties raised by this decision, is that a new distribution of the quota of each county should be simultaneously made throughout all the divisions, taking the county-rate assessment as the basis of the calculations of the several quotas. It seems absurd that each division should take its own course, and raise its own quota, without reference to the principles and practice adopted in the adjoining and neighbouring divisions, or to the sums there to be raised.

But perhaps it may be thought not unreasonable to seek for legislative interference, in order that new quotas made be adopted for the counties; which have probably changed in relative value since the quotas were fixed, as greatly, at least in many instances, as the parishes.

If so large a measure as this should appear unattainable in the present Session of Parliament, perhaps a short Act for retaining the parish quotas unchanged for a year, and until the greater measure could be matured, would not be thought unreasonable.

If the decision now reported be to be acted upon divisionally, it must be considered whether the apportionment of parochial quotas, to be made by the local commissioners in each division, are to be final, or subject to any appeal; and if the latter, how it is to be managed.

Hoping to receive immediate and full instructions,

I remain, &c.

(signed) Wm. P. Pinchard,
Clerk to Commissioners, Taunton.

Mr. J. W. Swinburne to the Secretary of Inland Revenue.

Sir,

Gateshead, 12 February 1851.

IN consequence of a recent case decided in the Court of Queen's Bench, 30th January 1851, "Re the Commissioners of Land Tax for the Division of Bradley Haverstoe, Lincolnshire, ex-parte Sir John Nelthorpe, bart. v. the Trustees of the will of John Adeane," reported in Vol. 16 of "Law Times," page 411, it appears to me necessary for all Commissioners of Land Tax to consider whether their present mode of assessing the land-tax in their respective divisions is in accordance with the principle laid down in that decision, and warranted by the Land Tax Acts; and as clerk to the Commissioners of Land Tax for Chester Ward, Durham, I am desirous to obtain the opinion and instructions of the Board of Inland Revenue for my future guidance.

By sect. 7 of 38 Geo. 3, c. 5 (the Land Tax Act for 1798), the several commissioners for putting that Act into execution are to meet within their county, &c. on or before the day therein named, and are to meet afterwards in like manner as often as it shall be necessary, for putting so much of the Act into execution as is thereby committed to their care and charge; and are to ascertain, and set down in writing, the several proportions which are to be charged upon every hundred, division, &c., by charging in proportion to the sums which were assessed upon the same hundreds or divisions respectively, by 4 Will. & Mary, c. 1.

By sect. 8, the commissioners within the said hundreds, divisions, &c. are to cause the several proportions charged upon the respective hundreds, divisions, &c. to be equally taxed and assessed within every such hundred, &c., or other division, and within every parish and place therein, according to the best of their judgment and discretion.

By 38 Geo. 3, c. 60, the several sums charged by virtue of 38 Geo. 3, c. 5, in the respective counties, &c. in respect of the manors, messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments in the said Act mentioned, lying within the same respectively, to be raised and paid within one year from 25th March 1798, are, after the expiration of the said term, to continue, and be raised and paid after the 25th March in every year for ever.

I have always understood that the Commissioners of Land Tax met in each county, as directed by the above Act, c. 5; that they defined and "settled" the quota to be paid in each division under the authority of sect. 7, and that the commissioners for each division afterwards defined and settled the quota to be paid in each parish in the division, as directed by sect. 8; and that such quotas once fixed remained unalterable under the provisions of the Act 38 Geo. 3, c. 60, and the subsequent Land Tax Acts.

This has certainly been the practice in this division from the year 1798, continuously to the present time; and I consider that any departure from that established practice will be most inconvenient in its results.

The effect of the case above cited, as reported in the "Law Times," is clearly to lay down the principle that the commissioners are to raise the amount of land-tax remaining a charge on their division, by an equal pound-rate upon all lands and tenements unredeemed and liable to assessment within the division; and as the assessments in the parishes in Chester Ward vary from a farthing in the pound to sixpence in the pound, and are different in each parish, I cannot doubt that the practice is inconsistent with the principle laid down in "Re Bradley Haverstoe."

I have always considered that appeals once heard and determined by the commissioners were (under sects. 8 & 23 of 38 Geo. 3, c. 5) final, "without any further appeal upon any pretence whatsoever, and without further trouble or suit in law, either in the Queen's Bench or any other court;" and it seems to me, that had the argument in the case cited been carried out, the court could not have issued a mandamus to the commissioners to alter the assessment.

I shall feel obliged by the opinion of the Board, whether the principle laid down in the case cited is correct, and the practice hitherto pursued for assessing the land-tax erroneous.

In case the Board consider the decision of the court not warranted by the constructions of the Acts, and are desirous that the present practice of assessing the land-tax should continue unaltered, whether they intend to issue any general directions on the subject, or set the matter at rest by legislative enactment.

COMMISSIONERS OF LAND TAX OF BRADLEY HAVERSTOE. 3

In the event of the Board being of opinion that the commissioners must assess the land-tax by an equal pound-rate throughout their division, I presume any extra expenses incurred in the general revisions of the assessments (which would be extremely troublesome and onerous) would be allowed under the authority of 6 Geo. 4, c. 32, s. 8.

I am, &c.

Mr. John Mourilyan to Charles Pressly, Esq.

Sir,

Sandwich, 26 February 1851.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of Land Tax for this division, held this day, I felt it my duty to bring under their consideration the important case decided in the Court of Queen's Bench on the 30th ultimo, that of Re the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the division of Bradley Haverstoe, Lincolnshire, from which it appears to be the duty of the Commissioners to assess the sum to be levied in their division by an equal pound-rate; in this division the tax has been for many years very unequally levied in the different parishes in the district. The time is now fast approaching when it will become the duty of the Commissioners to make a new assessment, and previous to their doing this, they have instructed me to address you on the subject, and ask, for their information, whether the Board of Inland Revenue wish them to make the new assessment as they have heretofore done, or whether they shall make it in accordance with the principle laid down by Lord Campbell in the case previously mentioned: the favour of your early reply will be esteemed by,

Sir, your obedient servant,
(signed) John Mourilyan.

The Clerk to Commissioners of Land Tax to Secretary of Inland Revenue.

Sir,

Worcester, 18 February 1851.

I AM directed by the Commissioners of Land Tax acting for the district of Worcester City, to apply to the Board for their advice and instructions with reference to the judgment of the Court of Queen's Bench, in the recent case of Bradley Haverstoe, Lincolnshire.

The circumstances of the parishes in this district are very similar to those of Bradley Haverstoe, and the quotas as now fixed are very unequal, according to the present altered value of the properties.

And if it is not the intention of the Board to send any circular containing uniform instructions to the Commissioners of the several districts, I am directed to inquire whether the assessment to the property-tax would not be the most certain guide to equality; and whether the Board will allow, under 6 Geo. 4, c. 32, s. 8, to the clerk of the Commissioners, any and what remuneration for his trouble and expenses, which must necessarily be given and incurred to enable the Commissioners to re-assess and re-adjust the quotas on the several parishes.

I have, &c.

Clerk to the Commissioners.

Sir,

Astley Hall, Stourport, 3 March 1851.

I HAVE received notice of a special meeting of Commissioners of Land Tax for the division of Kidderminster, to be held on Wednesday, 12th instant, for the purpose of hearing an application from Mr. Nicholson, as agent of Sir Robert Throckmorton, in regard to the assessment of his lands in the parish of Chaddesley Corbett, in the division of Kidderminster.

A similar application was made some time back, when (as chairman of the meeting), it fell to my lot to take the lead in the conduct of the proceedings, and this may probably be the case again. I understand that Mr. Nicholson intends to ground his renewed application upon some recent proceedings in the Court of Queen's Bench, in the case of Sir John Nelthorpe, Bart. and division of Bradley Haverstoe, Lincoln.

During 20 years that I have acted as a magistrate and Commissioner of Taxes, it has never happened to me other than in this case, to be charged with a peremptory and prejudiced course, nor to be treated as I was by Mr. Nicholson.

I am quite willing to admit that the charge on Sir R. Throckmorton may be excessive, but he has failed in obtaining redress in the mode required by law, and I did not feel that the local Commissioners would be acting in accordance with their duty in any indirect and irregular proceedings, implying a censure upon that decision.

Under these circumstances, I thought myself right in insisting that Mr. Nicholson should confine himself to some definite issue, and in refusing to admit any general power to relieve Sir R. Throckmorton, offering of course a re-assessment of the sum now charged on the parish, but which will not suit him.

I cannot see my way towards any re-apportionment in the division of Kidderminster, which has only a conventional and accidental existence; nor can I (as now practically limited to this small district) see my way to raise a question of re-assessment upon what might have been the actual division in 38 Geo. 3.

If the Board could point out any course in which we might safely proceed in such a position, I am sure my brother Commissioners and myself would gladly adopt it.

WITH reference to the letter which I took the liberty of addressing to you a few days ago, I think it may be well to enclose the notice of our clerk, and copy of letter from my friend Mr. Selfe, of the Oxford circuit.

There are so many serious difficulties consequent upon re-opening a county or divisional assessment under 38 Geo. 3, that I trust the Board will not deem it an unfit occasion to tender to the local Commissioners some advice for their government.

In the absence of this, my own individual judgment would lead me to wait the issuing of a mandamus.

12, King's Bench Walk, Temple, London,
3 March 1851.

Dear Sir,

Sir John Nelthorpe's case was decided on the 30th January last; no authorized report of it has yet appeared, but I have arranged with the reporter for the Queen's Bench that it shall appear in next Saturday's "Jurist," a copy of which I will direct to be forwarded to you.

In substance it decides, viz. that though the sum total assessed for each land-tax division is fixed, the quota of such sum total charged on each parish in the division must be determined by an equal rate upon the rateable property in the division. If, therefore, the rate upon the parish of Chaddeley Corbett is, as I understand from you, a higher rate in the pound than is levied in other parishes, there must be some means by which the owners of land in that parish can enforce a re-assessment of the land-tax division, for the purpose of remedying the inequality, and reducing the parochial quota of Chaddeley Corbett.

Corbett. Lord Campbell intimated a doubt whether a mandamus to the Land Tax Commissioners to make such re-assessment could be issued in Sir J. Nelthorpe's case, there being an appeal to the Lords of the Treasury given by the statute. But no such appeal had been made in that case, and it became unnecessary to decide that point, the Land Tax Commissioners merely wishing (as I am told) the opinion of the Queen's Bench for their guidance. And I think, supposing Chaddesley Corbett entitled to a reduction of its parochial quota, the refusal of the Lords of the Treasury to entertain the appeal would remove the objection to a mandamus issuing in this case, there being now no other remedy for the aggrieved parish.

Under the circumstances, I should suggest that for the purpose of hearing the application in question, the attendance of all the Commissioners for the land tax division in which C. C. is situate ought to be requested; and the application can then be decided on its merits. It would be no answer to an application for a mandamus against the Land Tax Commissioners of the division, that the application was heard and refused by a body of Commissioners who by custom, and for general convenience, have in fact always acted for a portion only of the land tax division; which I gathered from you, was the difficulty which prevented the body of which you are acting chairman, from directing a re-assessment of the whole division.

KIDDERMINSTER DIVISION.

Sir,

Tax Office, Kidderminster,
25 February 1851.

WITH reference to the land tax assessed upon Sir Robert Throckmorton in the parish of Chaddesley Corbett, Mr. Nicholson, as his agent, has given me intimation of his intention to bring forward the subject again before the Commissioners, and that he is especially induced to do so immediately, in consequence of the recent decision given by the Court of Queen's Bench in the case of Sir John Nelthorpe, bart., and others, against the land-tax assessment charged within the division of Bradley-Haverstoe, in the county of Lincoln: and as this decision is of great importance as regards cases of a precisely similar nature, I have deemed it necessary that the Commissioners acting for this division should be called together without delay, for the purpose of determining what proceeding shall in future be adopted with reference to the subject alluded to.

A meeting of the Commissioners of the Land Tax acting for the division of Kidderminster will be held at this office on Wednesday the 12th day of March next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to take into consideration the proposition intended to be submitted by Mr. Nicholson, and upon which occasion your attendance is most necessary and desirable.

The Answer of the Board of Inland Revenue to the preceding Letters.

Sir,

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
18 March 1851.

THE Board have had before them your letter on the subject of a recent opinion given by the Court of Queen's Bench, in the case of Sir John Nelthorpe and others, against the land tax assessment charged within the division of Bradley Haverstoe, in the county of Lincoln.

In the case referred to, it appears that the rule for a mandamus to the Commissioners was discharged on the ground that the court have no jurisdiction to control the Commissioners in the execution of a duty which the Land Tax Act has directed to be performed by them according to the best of their judgment and discretion.

discretion. And although the Court afterwards, at the request of the parties, expressed an opinion that the Commissioners ought to make an equal assessment throughout the division, yet, as that was an opinion given extrajudicially on a matter in which the Court had no jurisdiction, and on which they were perhaps imperfectly informed, it cannot be regarded as one to which the weight of an authoritative decision is due.

I am directed to observe, that the land tax has been assessed in the present mode, and the quotas charged on the divisions have been assessed in the several parishes in the same proportions as are now charged thereon, during a period of nearly two centuries. Property has been bought and sold, and otherwise dealt with, on the faith of the permanency of the practice which has so long prevailed in the assessment of the land tax, and any attempt now made to alter that practice would, in the opinion of the Board, not only be attended with almost insuperable difficulties, but, if successful, would operate with great injustice.

Under these circumstances the Board cannot recommend that any new mode of charging and assessing the land tax should be adopted, whereby any alteration would be made in the amount payable either in divisions or parishes, unless the Legislature may think proper to provide otherwise, in which case doubtless such powers and directions would be enacted as would enable the Commissioners to effect the object in view.

Mr. Robert Swan to Charles Pressly, Esq.

Sir,

I SEND you a copy of a letter which I yesterday laid before the Commissioners of Land Tax for the division of the Bail and Close of Lincoln. As they have always acted in compliance with the printed instructions received from the Tax Office, as well with respect to the land-tax as to the assessed taxes, for carrying the Acts relating thereto into effect; and as in regard to the land-tax they have acted upon such instructions in forwarding to the assessors the only document received from the Tax Office relating to the land-tax, that is to say, the appointment of the assessors, with instructions to them to make an assessment in their respective parishes; and as the parochial assessments are those only which have, as far as they can ascertain, been made in this division since the passing of the Acts for the redemption of the land-tax, they request from the Tax Office instructions how to act on the subject of the letter, for they feel persuaded that the greatest injustice will be done to the landowners by a compliance with the requisition contained in the letter, if indeed such a compliance shall be found practicable.

WE beg leave to inform you that we are instructed to apply to the Court of Queen's Bench for a rule against the commissioners for the division of Aslaoe, to show cause why they should not assess the township of Blyborough at the equal pound rate of the division; but before we do so, we are again desirous of bringing the subject under the consideration of the commissioners at their meeting for fixing the quotas for 1851, as we hope that from a recent decision in that

Sir,

THE Board have had before them your letter of the 15th instant, enclosing copy of a letter from Messrs. J. & H. Richardson & Gaunt, of Leeds, in reference to a recent opinion given by the Court of Queen's Bench, in the case of Sir John Nelthorpe and others, against the land-tax assessment charged within the division of Bradley Haverstoe, in the county of Lincoln.

In the case referred to, it appears that the rule for a mandamus to the commissioners was discharged, on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction to control the commissioners in the execution of a duty which the Land Tax Act has directed to be performed by them according to the best of their judgment and discretion. And although the court afterwards, at the request of the parties, expressed an opinion that the commissioners ought to make an equal assessment throughout the division, yet as that was an opinion given extra-judicially on a matter in which the court had no jurisdiction, and on which they were perhaps imperfectly informed, it cannot be regarded as one to which the weight of an authoritative decision is due.

I am directed to observe, that the land-tax has been assessed in the present mode, and the quotas charged on the division have been assessed on the several parishes in the same proportions as are now charged therein, during a period of nearly two centuries. Property has been bought and sold and otherwise dealt with on the faith of the permanency of the practice which has so long prevailed in the assessment of the land-tax, and any attempt now made to alter that practice would, in the opinion of the Board, not only be attended with almost insuperable difficulties, but if successful, would operate with great injustice.

Under these circumstances the Board cannot recommend that any new mode of charging and assessing the land-tax should be adopted, whereby any alteration would be made in the amount payable either in divisions or parishes, unless the Legislature may think proper to provide otherwise, in which case doubtless such powers and directions would be enacted as would enable the commissioners to effect the object in view.

I have to add that in the event of the commissioners being served with the threatened rule, you will immediately communicate the fact to the Board.

The Chairman of the Board of Land Tax, Tower Division, to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Gentlemen,

Board Room, Spital-square, 14 April 1851.

I AM requested by the Board of Commissioners of Land Tax for the Tower Division, Middlesex, at a meeting held this day, to acknowledge the receipt of a letter, dated 7th April instant, addressed to our clerks, signed by Mr. Keogh, from the Board of Inland Revenue, ^{12. 1891}/₅₁ advising the Commissioners of this division, for certain reasons therein stated, to continue the unequal mode of raising the quota of land-tax in the county of Middlesex, and to beg your attention to the great difficulties under which we are labouring; for it appears to us that it would be highly improper, at the great risk of litigation and consequent costs, to make a rate for land-tax within the division in any manner (using the words of Lord Chief Justice Campbell) other than by an equal pound-rate on all property liable to the charge within the division.

That to render an assessment valid, the Commissioners at their general meeting for the county are bound to follow the directions of the 38 Geo. 3, c. 5, s. 7, which enacts "that they shall ascertain and set down in writing the several proportions which ought to be charged upon every hundred, &c."; and by sect. 8, "shall agree and set down in writing who and what number of the Commissioners shall act in each division or hundred;" neither of which directions were then followed; the resolutions of the general meetings held 28th March and 8th April 1851 being in opposition to each other: the first is, "that an equal rate be made over the whole county, and the second that a most unequal rate be made by charging the same sums as were assessed last year, and which sums were not specifically set down in writing; but if that resolution refers to sums which were put down last year they were evidently wrong, no deduction having been made for the personal land-tax included in those sums, but which has been repealed, nor any abatement for land-tax redeemed, nor for double assessments on papists which have been discharged. That the sum referred to in such last resolution of the Commissioners at their general meeting, and intended to be imposed upon the Tower divisions, greatly exceeds the just proportion which the law intended and declared to be chargeable thereupon. That the Act 38 Geo. 3, c. 5, directs the land-tax to be raised by an equal pound-rate charged with as much indifference as is possible upon every county, city, borough, town or other place charged by the said Act, in proportion to the sums which were assessed on the same hundreds or divisions respectively by an Act of 4 Will. & Mary; but the present amount sought to be imposed upon the Tower division is most unequal and unjust in proportion to the sum by the same Act (38 Geo. 3) charged upon the rest of the county of Middlesex, of which the Tower division forms a part.

That the letter received from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, dated 7th instant, contains allegations which appear to us to be contrary to fact; viz., that the sums charged upon each parish, &c. are the same which have been charged for nearly the two last centuries, and it recommends a mode of assessment directly opposed to the opinions of the Court of Exchequer in Lord Aylesford's case (cited by the Chairman of the Inland Revenue Board in support of his opinion given before a Committee of the House of Commons), and also of the Queen's Bench, in January last, in Sir John Nelthorpe's case; which opinions in the judgment of this Board were in perfect accordance with law and equity.

The Commissioners for this division respectfully request your early attention to this important subject.

I have, &c.
(signed) George Offor,
Chairman of the Board of Land Tax,
Tower Division.

The Secretary of Inland Revenue to George Offor, Esq.

Sir, Inland Revenue, Somerset House, 1 May 1851.

I HAVE laid before the Board your letter of the 14th ult., in reference to the assessments of land-tax in the county of Middlesex.

In reply, I am directed to observe that the Board have given their careful and deliberate consideration to the whole of this subject, and are clearly of opinion that the commissioners for the county are precluded from altering the proportions charged upon divisions, which proportions were settled in pursuance of the Act 38 Geo. 3, c. 5, in proportion to the sums which were assessed on the same divisions respectively by the Land Tax Act of 4 Will. & Mary. The Board have only further to observe that they do not perceive that they can, upon the present occasion, add anything to the observations addressed to the Commissioners for the several divisions of Middlesex, either as to the alteration of the amount now charged on divisions, or of that charged on the parishes within such divisions.

I have, &c.
(signed) Thomas Keogh.

Messrs. Lush & Mercer to the Secretary of Inland Revenue, Somerset House.

Sir,

Spital-square, 10 April 1851.

THE Commissioners of Land Tax for the county of Middlesex, at their adjourned general meeting, held on the 8th instant, after hearing read your letter of the 7th instant, on the subject of equalizing the quotas of land tax, resolved that the "quotas to be assessed within the several divisions be the same sums as have been assessed thereon respectively during the last year," leaving the Commissioners within their several divisions to act as they may think fit in apportioning the quotas among the several parishes. We beg to state that we feel considerable difficulty in advising the Commissioners under whom we act to adhere to the sums heretofore assessed on each parish or other subdivisional district, in consequence of the case brought before the Court of Queen's Bench, on the 30th January last, In re Commissioners of Land Tax ex parte Sir John Nelthorpe, Bart., and others, in which the Lord Chief Justice is reported to have expressed his opinion, that "although the assessments upon counties were perpetual, whatever variance there might be in the value of property, still within the divisions there ought to be an equal pound rate, and the Commissioners ought to do whatever was in their power to make the assessments equal within that division;" and he afterwards added, "if they," the Commissioners, "wished to have the intimation of our opinion, we have given it in the most express terms, and we all concur with one voice in giving that opinion;" and the court refused to allow the Commissioners their costs, stating "they had made a considerable mistake." It is therefore apprehended, if the opinion thus expressed is to be considered as settled law which ought to guide their future proceedings, that if the district commissioners neglect to equalize the quotas to be raised within the division of the county for which they act, among the several parishes, in proportion to the rentals of the property (of which the land tax remains unredeemed), they might incur the risk not only of bearing their own costs, but also paying the costs of any party taking any proceedings at law to procure such an equal rating. We therefore request to be informed, for the guidance of the Commissioners, whether, in case they direct the assessors for the ensuing year to raise the quotas heretofore assessed, the Board of Inland Revenue will, in the event of any hostile proceedings taking place against the Commissioners, or those acting by their authority, authorize the proceedings to be defended by the solicitor of that department, or recommend to the Lords of the Treasury that such costs as may be incurred may be defrayed out of the land-tax surplus of assessments.

We are, &c.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,

Gentlemen,

I HAVE laid before the Board your letter of the 10th instant.

In reply, I am directed to observe, that the opinion thrown out by the Court of Queen's Bench, in the case of Sir John Nelthorpe, Bart., and others, was extrajudicial, and as the Board conceive given upon imperfect information.

The Board cannot regard the opinion referred to as an authority which has the weight of a judicial decision.

The only point which was, in fact, determined in that case was, that the court had no jurisdiction, and any further application of the like nature would, after such decision, be, it is apprehended, at the risk of costs against the party making it.

I am, &c.

Sir,

Richmond, Yorkshire, 19 April 1851.

At a meeting of Commissioners at Richmond, on the 5th instant, to appoint assessors, &c., for the division of Gilling West, Mr. Nicholson, of Leeds, and Mr. Langhorne, solicitor, of Richmond, the former on behalf of Sir C. Constable, Bart., and the latter on behalf of Mr. Wilson, of Cliff, called upon the Commissioners to equalize the quotas of land tax charged in each township in their division; when the following resolution was agreed to: "That the land-tax assessors' warrants be detained, as the Commissioners are prepared to make an equal pound rate throughout the division, but they request for time to be properly advised as to the best method of proceeding, and do therefore adjourn this meeting for that purpose to the 3d day of May next."

The Rev. W. F. Wharton, a commissioner for the division, has forwarded me the enclosed letter, and begs the Honourable Board will be pleased to furnish the Commissioners with the information, for their guidance at the adjourned meeting on the 3d of May next.

I may be permitted to observe that the proceedings of the 5th instant are correctly stated in Mr. Wharton's letter.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
28 April 1851.

Gentlemen,

THE Board are informed that an application has been made to you to equalize the quota of land tax charged on each township in your division, with reference to an opinion expressed in the Court of Queen's Bench in the recent case of The Queen and the Commissioners of Bradley Haverstoe: I am directed to acquaint you that the Board do not consider that there has been any judicial decision on this subject, the opinion thrown out being one given, as the Board conceive, on imperfect information in a matter wherein the court determined that they had no jurisdiction.

The amount of land tax charged on the division has been apportioned in quotas on the several parishes during a period of nearly two centuries, and property has been bought and sold, and otherwise dealt with, on the faith of the permanency of the practice which has so long prevailed.

The Board are so impressed with the opinion that any attempt of the kind proposed would be attended with such difficulties and confusion, and would moreover be replete with so much injustice, that they are quite prepared, in the event of any rule for a mandamus being obtained (which is very improbable after the court having decided that it had not any jurisdiction in the matter), to direct the solicitor of this department to take the necessary steps for opposing it at the expense of the revenue.

I am, &c.

The Director.—Sir Henry De la Beche, the director of the Museum, is director of the Geological Survey also; a portion of his time as director of the survey is necessarily employed in the field; another portion is employed in London in superintending the printing and publication of the proceedings, and in the general direction of all the arrangements not of a strictly local character. He is paid a salary for his services as director of the survey only. Dear Lord Clarence, Treasury, 30 January 1851.

I ENCLOSE an application from the Commissioners of Portobello, which, from the Lord Advocate's illness, has been entrusted to me. Pray direct an answer, which I hope will be a favourable one, to be sent me from the proper quarter.

I am, &c.
(signed) W. Gibson Craig.

Unto the Honourable the Board of Ordnance;

The Memorial of the Commissioners of Police, &c. for the Burgh of Portobello, under the Police of Towns, &c. Scotland Act;

Sheweth,

THAT by the CCXXII clause of the above-recited Act, it is provided that the Commissioners "shall procure, or cause to be made, a survey and map of the burgh, on a scale of not less than 60 inches to a mile, &c."

That the survey of this burgh has not yet been commenced by the officers under your Honourable Board, but the officers conducting your survey are at present in Edinburgh, from which this burgh is now hardly separated, a portion of each town being in the same parish. The cavalry barracks are situated about midway on the ground intervening between them, and to which your survey on the 60-inch scale is already completed. The ground between the said barracks and this town is to a considerable extent built upon, and the cavalry and artillery drill-ground is in this burgh. That the town of Portobello is rapidly rising in importance, containing, in the summer season some 8,000 or 9,000 inhabitants, it being the great resort of the inhabitants of Edinburgh as a watering-place.

That your Memorialists understand that the survey of this burgh is shortly to be proceeded with.

May it therefore please your Honourable Board to direct, that it shall be executed on a scale corresponding to that of the city of Edinburgh; your doing which would confer a great boon on your Memorialists and the inhabitants of this place.

And your Memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Signed by me, in name and by authority of the Commissioners,
Portobello, Jas. Johnston,
27 January 1851. late Lieut.-Col. 99th Reg., and Provost.

My Dear Sir Gibson,

O. O., 24 February 1851.

ENQUIRY having been made of the head of the Ordnance Survey Department in reference to the Memorial (which accompanied your note of the 30th ult.) from the Commissioners of Police, &c. for the burgh of Portobello, relative to a survey and plan of the burgh on the scale of five feet to a mile, it appears that in accordance with the rule hitherto adopted on the Ordnance Survey, the burgh will not be surveyed by this department for the five-feet scale, as the number of inhabitants according to the past census, amounted to 3,588 souls; how far that number will have increased to 4,000, the number required (so that the burgh may be surveyed and drawn on the five-feet scale), at the time of the census in March next, this deponent has not the means of ascertaining.

The survey of the general map of Scotland on the six-inch scale, will not be taken up in the regular course of the work in less than six months from the present time; and if the Master-general and Board should be enabled to comply with the prayer of the Memorial, it will be requisite that the Commissioners of Police of Portobello should defray the extra cost that must necessarily be incurred if the work be so executed for their benefit, and out of the regular course of the survey, to the extent probably, of 100*l*.

Faithfully yours,

(signed) C. Paget.

Sir Wm. Gibson Craig, Bart.

To the Secretary of the Board of Ordnance, London.

Sir,

Council Chamber, Aberdeen, 31 March 1851.

I HAVE the honor, in the name of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Aberdeen, to send the enclosed Memorial from that body, addressed to the Honourable the Master-general and the Board of Ordnance, on the subject of the Trigonometrical Survey of Scotland: and praying that the Board may be pleased to give the necessary directions for the energetic prosecution of this survey; and that, as soon as the surveys of Edinburgh and Glasgow are completed, the county of Aberdeen may be selected as the next to be surveyed.

I have to request that you will be so good as to lay the Memorial before the Board of Ordnance, and soliciting the Board's early and favourable consideration of the same,

I have, &c.

(signed) George Henry,
Provost of Aberdeen.

Unto the Honourable the Master-general and the Board of Ordnance of Great Britain and Ireland;

The humble Memorial of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen;

Sheweth,

THAT your memorialists' attention has been lately drawn to the important subject of the Trigonometrical Survey of Scotland, with a view of procuring a more energetic prosecution of the same.

Your memorialists understand that the survey was commenced upwards of 40 years ago; viz. in 1809, but that it has been carried on in the most slow and intermittent manner; and your memorialists have been informed that its progress appears to have been considered of so little importance with the surveys of other portions of the kingdom, that whenever it was found convenient, the whole of the men and instruments employed were unceremoniously removed to England or Ireland; and that in order to expedite the work of the latter country, the operations in Scotland were, on one occasion, altogether suspended during a period of no less than 16 years. In point of fact, notwithstanding the long period that has elapsed, a detailed survey of only one county in Scotland has been obtained; viz. that of Wigton; forming less than a sixtieth part of Scotland.

Your memorialists are farther informed that the survey of England is now nearly completed, while that of the whole of Ireland, which was commenced in 1825 (16 years after that of Scotland was begun), was completed in 1843; and the whole country mapped off by the year 1846, in a manner and on a scale which has rendered the most invaluable service to all interests in that country.

Your

Your memorialists respectfully desire to state, that a very general feeling exists in the public mind, that in this matter, Scotland has experienced most unmerited neglect. They trust that no unnecessary delay will now be allowed to take place; and feeling assured that your Honourable Board must be well aware of the importance of the subject in every point of view, respectfully pray,

That it may please your Honourable Board to take the matter into your early consideration, and to give the necessary directions for the energetic prosecution of the long-deferred Trigonometrical Survey of Scotland. And your memorialists further understanding that the surveys of Edinburgh and Glasgow are about completed, would, in respect of the city of Aberdeen, being the third city in Scotland, further respectfully solicit that the county of Aberdeen may be the next directed to be surveyed.

Signed in name of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the city of Aberdeen, and the common seal of the said city hereunto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 31st day of March 1851.

Council Chamber, Aberdeen,
31 March 1851.

Geo. Henry,
Provost of Aberdeen.

Sir,

Office of Ordnance, E
14 April 1851. 488

I AM directed by the Board of Ordnance to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 31st ultimo, enclosing a Memorial on the subject of the Trigonometrical Survey of Scotland.

I have the Board's commands to acquaint you, that the Survey of Scotland is in regular progress, and proceeding as quickly as the Grants of Parliament will admit, and that the county of Aberdeen will be taken in its due course.

George Henry, Esq.,
Provost of Aberdeen, Scotland.

The great diminution in Tithes is owing to the Tithe Commutation Act. Under the old Property Tax Act, Tithes were required to be returned for assessment by the tithe-owners; they are now, when commuted into a rent-charge, included in the annual value of the lands, pursuant to Rule No. 4, sec. A. of the Act 5 & 6 Viet., c. 35.

The terms of the Order, in compliance with which the above Return is made out, in not requiring more than the amount of the default, and the sums recovered from the sureties, do not bring out the real position of these arrears. It is therefore thought right to add this explanation:—

In the majority of the cases no security was given by the collectors.

In many cases the arrears, or a portion of them, have been recovered from the collectors themselves, and in others the proceedings are still pending against them or their sureties.

In the cases marked (A.) the whole arrear has been recovered from the collectors.

In those marked (B.) a portion of the arrear has been recovered from the collectors, amounting together to 955*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

REGISTRARS OF DEEDS (MIDDLESEX).

RETURN to an Address of the Honourable The House of Commons,
dated 27 March 1851 ;—for,

A “ RETURN of the Total Amount of FEES received by the REGISTRARS of DEEDS in Middlesex, or their DEPUTIES or CLERKS, in each Year, from the End of the Year 1848 to the End of the Year 1850, and of the Application of such Fees, distinguishing the Amount paid for the Expenses of the Office, and the Amount received by the Registrars for their own Use, and stating whether any and what Duties are performed by them in Person ; also, an Account of the Fees received for searching any Special or New Indexes, and of the Authority under which such Fees are demanded and taken ; of the NAMES of the REGISTRARS, DEPUTIES and CLERKS, and of the Salaries and Emoluments of each, during such Period : ”

“ And, COPIES of any RULES and ORDERS of the Lord Chancellor and Judges, pursuant to the Act 7 Anne, c. 20 (in continuation of Parliamentary Paper, No. 385, of Session 1849). ”

(Mr. Mullings.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 23 June 1851.

RETURNS made by the REGISTRARS of DEEDS for the County of Middlesex.

FIRST REQUISITION.

RETURN of the Total Amount of FEES received by the REGISTRARS of DEEDS in Middlesex, or their Deputies or Clerks, in each Year from the end of the Year 1848 to the End of the Year 1850, and of the Application of such Fees: distinguishing the Amount paid for the Expenses of the Office, and the Amount received by the Registrars for their own Use, and stating whether any and what Duties are performed by them in Person.

Amount of Fees received in the Years					Expenses.			Emoluments to the Four Registrars.
1849	-	-	4,029	6	-	1,912	12	7	2,116	13	5
1850	-	-	4,275	11	6	1,991	7	2	2,284	4	4

The fees are applied first, in defraying the expenses of the office, and the surplus is equally divided amongst the registrars.

The duties are not generally performed by the registrars in person, but by their deputy.

The Act of the 7 Anne, c. 20, which established the Middlesex Register Office, appoints certain officers in the superior courts of law to be registrars; the duties of these officers in the courts being wholly inconsistent with the constant personal performance of the practical business as registrars; the Act authorizes them to appoint a deputy or deputies, and it has been the custom to do so, since that Act was passed.

Any doubtful or disputed points of practice, or any new matter which may occur out of the ordinary course of daily business, as well as the quarterly accounts, are always submitted to the registrars for their adjudication and approval.

The registrars are by the Act made accountable for the deputy or deputies, and each registrar is required to enter into a recognizance with two sureties of the penalty of 2,000*l.* for the faithful performance of the duties of the office.

SECOND REQUISITION.

RETURN of the FEES received for searching any Special or New Indexes, and of the Authority under which such Fees are demanded and taken.

For the year 1850, the date of its commencement, the fees received, in addition to the customary one of 1*s.* for the new indexes, amounted to 36*l.*

These indexes, which are in lexicographical order, were commenced upon the repeated request, and urgent entreaty of the profession, and are now complete for 15 years, from 1836 to 1850 both inclusive, and are still being proceeded with.

They were provided under the direction and at the cost of the deputy registrar.

They were introduced for the purpose of rendering facilities to searchers in the saving of much time and labour, and to prevent nearly the possibility of error.

The cost for searching is 1*s.* 6*d.* in excess of that paid for the old indexes, and is charged to meet the heavy outlay incurred in arranging, copying and examining.

When this outlay is defrayed, the books will be opened to the public free of any additional charge beyond 1*s.*

To search in the new or in the old indexes is perfectly optional, as the indexes provided under the Act of 7 Anne are still made up as usual, and may be referred to as heretofore.

To parties searching in the new indexes they appear to give great satisfaction, and the extra fee is willingly paid, and is not considered more than adequate for the great advantage derived from them.

THIRD REQUISITION.

RETURN of the NAMES of the REGISTRARS, DEPUTIES and CLERKS, and of the Salaries and Emoluments of each during such Period.

FOURTH REQUISITION.

RETURN Copies of any RULES and ORDERS of the Lord Chancellor and Judges, pursuant to the Act 7 Anne, c. 20.

Nor any rule or order by either the Lord Chancellor or Judges, has been made for the regulation of this office since the session of 1849.

John Rigge,
Dep. Registrar.

REGISTRARS OF DEEDS (MIDDLESEX).

RETURN of the Total Amount of Fees received by the REGISTRARS of Deeds in Middlesex, or their DEPUTIES or CLERKS, in each Year from 1848 to 1850; and Copies of any RULES and ORDERS of the Lord Chancellor and Judges, pursuant to Act 7 Anne, c. 20 (in continuation of Parliamentary Paper, No. 385, of Sess. 1849).

LIEUTENANT COLONEL ROSE.

RETURN to an Address of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 1 July 1851;—for,

“COPY of CORRESPONDENCE between the Secretary of State for the Foreign Department and the Treasury, relative to the Issue of Half-pay to Lieutenant-Colonel Rose, during the time that he held the Office of Consul General in Syria.”

Sir,

Foreign Office, 3 January 1850.

I AM directed by Viscount Palmerston to request you will bring under the consideration of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury the case of Colonel Hugh Rose, Her Majesty's Consul-general in Syria, who claims the arrears of his half-pay as a Lieutenant-colonel in the army, which has not been issued to him.

The case of Colonel Rose in regard to his claim to receive his half-pay while employed as Consul-general, is an exception to the general rule with respect to such matters; for when Colonel Rose was originally employed in Syria in command of the British detachment which had been sent on a particular service to that country in the year 1841, he received his half-pay, with the pay and allowances of the military appointment which he held in Syria.

In the year 1841 Colonel Rose's military appointment ceased; but, in consideration of his services and of his knowledge of the country, he was appointed Her Majesty's Consul-general in Syria, with a salary of 1,000*l.* a year.

This amount of salary was fixed upon the understanding that Colonel Rose was to receive, as Consul-general, a salary equal in amount to the military pay and allowances which he received whilst he commanded the British detachment in Syria.

That pay and those allowances were stated to be at the rate of 977*l.* 17*s.* 11*d.* a year; and in addition to this sum, Colonel Rose received, whilst in command of the detachment in Syria, his half-pay as a Lieutenant-colonel in the army; but when the civil salary of 1,000*l.* a year commenced, his military half-pay was not issued to him.

Colonel Rose therefore requests, that this half-pay, or an equivalent, may be issued to him.

It was intended that Colonel Rose should continue to receive, in his civil appointment, the same amount of emolument which he had received while holding his military appointment; and therefore his salary as Consul-general in Syria was fixed at 1,000*l.* a year, on the understanding that he was also to receive the half-pay which he had before received whilst acting in a military capacity. It consequently appears to Viscount Palmerston, that Colonel Rose's claim is founded in equity; and I am therefore directed by his Lordship to request you will lay the case before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and move their Lordships to give such directions as may be requisite, so that the arrears of half-pay due to Colonel Rose, or that an equivalent thereto, may be issued to him; and that the same may be continued during the time he shall hold the post of Her Majesty's Consul-general in Syria.

I am, &c.

(signed) H. U. Addington.

The Right Hon.
W. G. Hayter, M. P.
&c. &c. &c.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 30 January 1850.

WITH reference to your letter, dated the 3d instant, I am commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to request that you will state to Viscount Palmerston, that as the salary received by Colonel Rose, as Consul-general in Syria, exceeds four times the amount of his half-pay, My Lords are restrained by the provisions of the law from directing the issue of half-pay.

2 CORRESPONDENCE RELATIVE TO LIEUT.-COLONEL ROSE.

My Lords are, however, of opinion, that, under the peculiar circumstances connected with Colonel Rose's appointment, it will be proper to make provision in the Estimate for Consular Services for an allowance equal to the amount of his half-pay, and it will also be necessary to provide in the same Estimate for the arrears of this allowance to the 31st of March 1850. At present there are no funds at their Lordships' disposal from which they can direct the payment of the sum due, but they will be prepared to do so as soon as the Estimate shall have received the sanction of Parliament.

I am, &c.

H. U. Addington, Esq.
&c. &c. &c.

(signed) W. G. Hayter.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL ROSE.

CORRESPONDENCE respecting the Issue of Half-pay to Lieut.-Colonel Rose, while Consul
General in Syria.

THE Treasury Minute of the 21st March 1823, referred to in the following Correspondence, is printed in Parliamentary Paper, No. 227, Session 1823.

— No. 2. —

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 28 June 1850.

WITH reference to your letter of the 12th instant, I am commanded, by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to acquaint you, that they concur with you in opinion, that Messrs. Clowes should be informed, that the arrangement under which they now print for the public will cease and determine on the 30th June 1851, and their Lordships desire that you will give Messrs. Clowes notice accordingly.

My Lords are also of opinion, that the ordinary course of proceeding, according to which services of this description are performed for the Government, under contracts entered into after public competition, ought not to be departed from in this instance; and their Lordships desire that you will take the necessary steps for inviting tenders, by public advertisement, for the execution of the Printing which has of late years been performed by Messrs. Clowes, taking care that the previous notice given is sufficiently long with reference to all the circumstances of the case.

I am, &c.

The Comptroller of the Stationery Office.

(signed) C. E. Trevelyan.

— No. 3. —

Copy of TREASURY MINUTE, dated 19 July 1850.

WRITE to Messrs. Clowes, that, after an attentive consideration of their letter, dated 4th instant, My Lords continue to be of opinion, that the Printing at present executed by them for the Government, should be subjected to public competition, and that one year's notice of the termination of the existing arrangement is as much as they (Messrs. Clowes) are fairly entitled to.

tenders were opened for that portion of the public Printing at present executed by Messrs. Clowes : they were as follows ; viz.—

John Smith - - -	3 ½ per cent.	premium on certain fixed charges.
Eyre & Spottiswoode	5 per cent.	premium on ditto - ditto.
J. Truscott - - -	6 ½ per cent.	premium on ditto - ditto.
W. Clowes & Sons -	10 per cent.	premium on ditto - ditto.
Harrison & Son -	15 per cent.	premium on ditto - ditto.

It is for their Lordships to decide which of these tenders should be accepted. If I may presume to give an opinion on such a point, I should recommend that the tender of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode be accepted, in preference to that of Smith, or of any of the others. Of the respectability of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode, and of their capacity to execute the work to the satisfaction of My Lords and of the public, there can be no manner of doubt. In addition to one of the largest private businesses in town, they are Her Majesty's Printers, the Printers to the House of Lords, and Printers of the Bills for both Houses of Parliament, so that they have always at command a large force, which they may at any time employ in printing for the public, and thus be able to get out any report or other paper, how speedily soever it may be required. In addition to all this, their character as respects the public is unimpeached and unimpeachable.

Mr. John Smith, whose tender is 1 ½ per cent. under that of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode, is already the contractor for the binding for this office. Their Lordships will probably suspect that I can hardly be a fair or a dispassionate judge of the merits of a person who has so often made unfounded complaints of me ; but in saying that I am firmly of opinion that Smith's tender is not the most favourable for the public, and should not be accepted, I really am not conscious of being actuated by any personal feeling towards him. The truth is, that he has already quite as much employment from the public as he appears to be capable of properly carrying on. He has no considerable separate business as a printer, and has not therefore that capacity, which is indispensable, of increasing his force on the emergencies that so frequently occur in printing for Parliament. Neither has he a stock of type or machinery at all adequate to undertake such a work, and it is doubtful, perhaps, whether he has the ability to acquire them. Indeed, I feel pretty well assured, that if their Lordships assign the contract to him, it will lead to the most undesirable results.

I beg leave, in illustration of this matter, to state, that the bills of Mr. Smith for binding amounted in 1846-47 to 29,545 l. 3*s.* 2*d.*, and in 1847-48 to 32,667 l. 17*s.* 8*d.* In the course of the ensuing official year* their Lordships were pleased to appoint an Examiner of Binding, who entered on his functions as such in June 1848, and in that year Smith's bills were reduced to 24,610 l. 9*s.* 11*d.*, and next year to 18,182 l. 14*s.* 5*d.* ; and I beg to add, that these reductions took place during the course of the same contract, and without any reduction of the necessary demands for binding.

I may further, perhaps, be permitted to recall to their Lordships' recollection the fact, that Smith entered, on the 25th May 1847, into a combination with other parties to make a factitious and enormous addition to the price of the parchments purchased by Government. The combination was defeated ; but I hardly think that those who entered into it have any very peculiar claim to be selected to fill situations of trust under Government.

And I would beg humbly to state, that the Printer of the Reports and Papers presented to Parliament by Her Majesty's command, occupies a station of much trust and responsibility. Many of these papers regard matters of the highest public interest, and sometimes they undergo various changes in the proofs : it is therefore indispensable that their printing should be committed to those only in whom perfect confidence may be placed. During the years 1847-48, 1848-49, and 1849-50, we paid at an average 19,602 l. 17*s.* 4*d.* a year to Messrs. Clowes for the printing of Reports and Papers ; so that their Lordships will see that this is, both as respects trust and pecuniary amount, a matter of great importance.

In

* Examiner of Binding appointed 7 June 1848.

conformity with the printed conditions, to execute the printing of Parliamentary Reports, &c. at 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. upon the prices set forth in the schedule; that your memorialist's tender was the lowest, and, according to the regulations hitherto in force, ought to have been accepted; but your memorialist is informed that the tender of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode has been accepted.

From this decision your memorialist appeals, protesting against it as alike unjust to your memorialist, and totally at variance with the principle of procuring supplies by public tender and open competition, whether such tender has been accepted at five per cent. premium upon the prices in the schedule, as it was originally delivered into the hands of the Comptroller, or at any reduction made subsequently to the opening of the tenders.

Your memorialist begs to call your Lordship's attention to the fact, that during the whole time he has contracted with the Stationery-office the lowest tender has always been accepted, and, whether so expressed or not in the conditions of the several contracts, all biddings have been made upon this understanding. That your Lordships' Minute of the 23d March 1823, on the management of the Stationery Office, printed in the Appendix of the Select Committee of the House of Commons on "King's Printers' Patents" in 1832, which expressly states that the lowest tender shall be taken, is believed by all persons having dealings with that office to be still in force; that, so recently as 1848 this rule was not abolished, is proved by the evidence of the Comptroller before the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Miscellaneous Expenditure, wherein, at page 52, in reply to the question (860), as to whether all tenders were absolutely open and without preference being given to any party, that officer stated "Yes; and the lowest tender is always taken, even though he be the greatest scoundrel in the trade that has tendered." That from that time to the present no intimation whatever has been given that this rule, hitherto so universally applied, would be altered, and no statement to that effect appeared either in the advertisements or in the conditions put forth by the Comptroller on which the biddings for the present contract were made.

Your memorialist, in consideration of these circumstances, is compelled to infer, that the departure on this occasion from the principle of awarding contracts to the lowest bidder, arises from some cause operating personally and prejudicially against your memorialist. He ventures to state, without hesitation, that any objection that may have been made against him on the score of incompetency cannot be sustained. As the best reply to such an objection, he points to the extent and amount of his contracts with the Stationery Office; that at the present time his existing contracts amount to 16,000 l. or 18,000 l. a year. That for the last eight years he has executed to the satisfaction of the Comptroller the job-printing for the public offices, which was fully equal in extent with the Government Bookwork Contract for England now under discussion; and an inspection of his premises in Long Acre alone would effectually disprove any objection on the ground of insufficiency of accommodation or store-room.

Your memorialist, therefore, appeals to your Lordships to take the circumstances herein stated into your favourable consideration, praying a further investigation, feeling assured that, when all the facts are fully and fairly placed before your Lordships, that you will award to your memorialist, as the lowest bidder, the contract for the printing of Reports and Books for the Public Service in England for the seven years ending 30th June 1858.

And your memorialist, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

23 January 1851.

— No. 9. —

Sir,

Stationery Office, 11 February 1851.

I HAVE the honour to return the memorial of Mr. John Smith, of Long Acre, who styles himself printer, stationer, and bookbinder, complaining of his tender not being accepted for the printing of Reports and Papers, on the 15th ult.; and, in reference thereto, I beg to state, for the information of the Right honourable the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury,—

That

That the allegation in Smith's Memorial, that the advance on the prices in the schedule, was 5 per cent. The tender of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode, was accepted by their Lordships, was five per cent. on the prices, and was consequently 1½ per cent. It appears to me that, in accepting Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode, that which was, all things considered, most advantageous, that they could not have adopted any other course, without setting an extremely bad precedent, and doing serious injury to the public.

Mr. Smith appears to think that the decision of the Minute is with and subversive of the Treasury Minute which regulated the constitution of this office, and laid down regulations in regard to the mode of conducting the business of this office. This he is totally mistaken. The Minute referred to never did do with this question. That such is the fact, from the fact, that while this question relates to the printing of Reports and Papers laid before Parliament, the Minute is dated in 1823, at a time when this office had the superintendence of any portion of the printing of Reports and Papers. It applied exclusively to the job-work printing, that being the only printing executed by the office. The printing of Reports and Papers was carried on by Parliamentary Printers; and it was so carried on until the Minute of 1823. The Minute of 1823 is not in discussion. It could not apply or refer to the present case, as it appeared: it related to a different state of things, and to an entirely different subject.

I may further state, that the contract lately entered into with Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode is the only contract ever entered into, for the printing of Papers presented by command. The contract with Messrs. Clowes by their Lordships, in 1834, had a public character: and in 1837, when a new contract was addressed to five parties only, viz. Messrs. Hansard, Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode, of whom were known to be unexceptionable, and the contract was then adjudged to Messrs. Clowes, under that of Messrs. Hansard, the only one who tendered. It did not, however, terminate in 1849, but with some modification in April 1849, to 1850, for the first time, to public competition.

But besides having no reference whatever to the Minute of 1823 has long ceased to have any practical effect. A single condition or provision in it which has been either by their Lordships' express directions, or by their Lordships' authority. Thus in the case of job-printing referred to in it, the Minute directs that there shall be less than four classes, and that the contracts are to be made at certain rates. But their Lordships are aware that the contracts have been or could be paid to the first of these classes. The different offices was at first divided into three classes, and then into four classes, and Mr. Hartnell held the office of printer undisturbed from 1840 down to 1850. The regulations in the Minute in regard to the printing, the examination of printers' accounts, the payment of their Lordships' Minutes, and that a great deal of money has been thereby effected.

Although, however, the Minute of the 21st of January 1823 certainly does not, to the present case, and for the purposes superseded and effete, still there would be no objection in the case of printing for Parliament, for their Lordships in regard to the claims of the parties tendering for the printing. It is needless to trouble their Lordships with the question.

tration of what is so obvious. It is sufficient, in vindication of the principle, to state, that the situation of Parliamentary Printer is one of great trust and responsibility, and that it is one also that requires great capacities as a tradesman for its proper discharge ; and being so, it would be preposterous to contend that it should be open to all individuals, or that any master printer, though without character or capacity to execute the work, should be preferred, in the event of his tender being the lowest.

It is true that in the case of other contracts, that is, in the case of contracts for paper, stores, &c., the principle is carried out of accepting the lowest tender, without regard to the character of the party tendering. We do this, because if a contractor fail to supply us with the article he has agreed to supply, at the proper time, we can go into the market and buy the article. But we could not so act in the case of printing for Parliament ; and hence this rule that may be advantageously acted upon in the one case, would be wholly inapplicable to the other.

It is apparent, therefore, both from the circumstance of the Minute of the 21st March 1823 not applying to Parliamentary printing, from its being effete and substantially repealed, and from the nature of the thing, that the argument that Smith has founded on the fact of his tender being the lowest, is not entitled to any weight. It was not only within their Lordships' power, but it was also, as I humbly conceive, their bounden duty, to interfere in a case of the kind now under consideration ; and I am firmly persuaded, for the reasons stated in my letter of the 15th ult., of which I beg to annex a copy, that in preferring the tender of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode to that of Smith, My Lords adopted the course most favourable for the public interest.

I may perhaps be permitted to add, that the Admiralty and all other departments of Government are uniformly in the habit, where circumstances appear to require it, of accepting tenders for contracts, though they may not be the lowest.

Smith states that for the last eight years he executed the job-work printing for the Public Offices to the satisfaction of the Comptroller. But in truth and reality, Smith never had a printing contract of any description whatever with this office. The late Mr. Hartnell was the contractor for job-work printing down to 1850. He, I believe, associated Smith with him in the contract ; but that was a private arrangement between these parties, with which this office had nothing to do. Hartnell alone took the contract, and till it terminated all our work-orders were addressed to him ; and he alone received payment for the work upon the bills being examined. The only characters in which I have known Smith have been as contractor for binding, for parchments, and for small stores ; and in these several capacities I have had the greatest reason to be dissatisfied with his conduct.

Smith is pleased to say that the job-work printing is fully equal in extent to that of the book-work printing executed by Clowes ; but, in answer thereto, it is sufficient to state, that our bills for printing to Messrs. Clowes amounted, at an average of the three years ending with 1849-50, to 19,602 l. 17 s. 4 d. ; whereas those paid to Hartnell for job-work printing during the same period amounted at an average to only 12,303 l. 0 s. 11 d.

But it is not merely as respects their amount that these descriptions of printing entirely differ. The one, in truth, has no analogy to the other. What is entitled job-work printing consists almost wholly of the printing of forms for the Board of Inland Revenue, the Customs, Post-office, &c., of headings for ledgers, circular letters, and so forth. It is, in fact, about the lowest description of printing, and may be executed by any one. To compare such printing with that of Reports and Papers, comprising, as they often do, evidence and statements of the most important description, and which are frequently for years under consideration, would be worse than ridiculous. Any one may be entrusted with the printing of a tax-form, or the heading of a ledger ; but there are not many parties in London to whom the printing of a Parliamentary Paper could be safely entrusted.

On the whole, therefore, it does not appear to me that Smith has stated any ground whatever for impeaching the propriety of the decision of their Lordships,
